March 2014

MARCH, THEATRE MONTH

The World Theatre Day is celebrated on March 27th, the thousand-year-old art used as a way of promoting the culture of different peoples. Since ancient times man has used theater as a form of expressing himself. This annual celebration was created in 1961 by the International Theatre Institute and since then it has been celebrated all over the world, including our region.

From March 10th to 14th, the 22nd edition of the Carlos Varela Regional School Theatre Festival will take place at the Jaime Moniz High School in Funchal, gathering theater groups from various schools in the region. A few days later, you can see the return of the AMO-Teatro '14 Theatre Festival, now in its 5th edition. From March 20th to 30th, the "Teatro Experimental da Camacha" (Theater Group of Casa do Povo of Camacha) will promote a noteworthy event which combines theatre, drama training, music, circus arts and street entertainment.

On March 27th, to celebrate World Theatre Day, the TEF- "Teatro Experimental do Funchal" will run the children's play "Big Bang - Mission (Im)possible" at the Baltazar Dias Municipal Theatre. Written by Cíntia Palmeira and staged by Eduardo Luiz.

"AMO-TEATRO FESTIVAL '14"

The 2014 edition of the AMO-Teatro (I Love Teatre) Festival, will bring together from March 20th to 30th, a wide range of professionals and events that make this festival a multifaceted event, which also focus on decentralization. These indoor and outdoor events will take place at the Baltazar Dias Municipal Theatre in Funchal, John Dos Passos Cultural Centre, in Ponta do Sol, in the auditorium of the "Casa do Povo of Camacha" and other venues such as the "Café do Teatro" and O "Cesto" restaurant.

For 10 days, Theater is celebrated through/with performances, workshops, art installation, circus art, street entertainment and music.

There are several theater and entertainment groups taking part in this festival, ranging from the islands of Madeira and Porto Santo to several mainland cities, and even from Spain, France and Brazil.

All good reasons not to skip the AMO-Teatro Theatre Festival '14.

MADEIRA LITERARY FESTIVAL

"queria de ti um país de bondade e de bruma queria de ti o mar de uma rosa de espuma" - Mário Cesariny
*[(I wanted from you a country of kindness and brume
I wanted from you the sea from a rose made of spume)]*

The Madeira Literary Festival (FLM), now in its 4th edition, will borrow these two verses from Mário Cesariny as its motto, as a reference to the complex state of affairs we live in nowadays.]

Mário Cesariny's poem "Querida de ti um país" (I wanted from you a country) serves as the theme for a set of initiatives that will take place from March 17th to 23rd at the Baltazar Dias Municipal Theatre and the Madeira Casino Congress Centre and Auditorium, welcoming a special singer, author and composer, the Brazilian Adriana Calcanhotto with the concert: "Olhos de Onda".

Conversations with writers, shows and other art-dedicated moments are only some of events provided by the FLM where there is also room for the youngest among us with the "Festivalinho - Fli" (the Junior Literary Festival), an initiative that aims to introduce children to the FLM, promoting and providing greater contact with books, authors, writers and illustrators.

THE MAGIC OF PUPPETRY

The Magic of Puppetry is a unique performance for all ages that will surely impress by its magic and fascination all of those who dare to challenge their curiosity around the world of puppetry, creatively explored by this artist.

From a rigorous selection, with proper skills and art, the actor Carlos Aveiro suspends his puppets with a complex and myriad of wires "talking, laughing, singing and teasing the audience." Due to its artistic beauty and unique clothing, puppets lead our imagination and fantasy to live a unique moment of "reality". The "stars" come from different parts of the world, including the United States of America, United Kingdom and the Netherlands. The puppets are produced out of French wood with a mixture of wooden pulp. Some of these are unique models and only around 99% produce mouth movements. This show is an excellent opportunity to "attend and observe" these authentic works of art, offering to all of those, who wish to be present, an artistic moment of unforgettable beauty."
