May 2012

“MUSEUMS FOR ALL OF US & BECAUSE OF EACH ONE OF US”

The month of May celebrates all museums in their most diversified offerings and activities. May 18th is the International Museum Day, an excellent opportunity to explore these institutions, free of charge, and also to share and enjoy the special programme that will be held in Funchal between May 18 and 26.

Internationally and as recommended by ICOM (International Council of Museums), the theme of 2012's International Museum Day, which this year celebrates its 35th anniversary, is "Museums in a Changing World: New Challenges, New Inspirations." Nevertheless, in Madeira, and considering that the Department of Cultural Affairs' museums are associated to the initiatives scheduled for the brand new Funchal's Culture Festival 2012, partaking in a programme planned around one single theme: "Museums for all of Us & because of each One of Us".

The Department of Cultural Affairs Museum's (DRAC) and the Directorate of Museums (DSM), the Quinta das Cruzes Museum, House-Museum Frederico de Freitas, the Vicentes Photography Museum and the Funchal's Museum of Contemporary Art, celebrate, this year the International Museum Day differently, with a wide range of initiatives and activities programmed with extended visiting hours, guided tours and free admissions.

ENDLESS, CONCEIVED BY HENRIQUE AMOEDO

Six different countries, Germany, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland and Portugal, have joined forces, resulting in the brand new production by the Group Dancing with the Difference, which will be introduced in May at the Casa das Mudas Arts Centre – Calheta.

“Endless” results from the artistic exchange project “Ma-Ma Project” supported by the European Commission through the “Grundtvig Lifelong Learning Programme”, in which take part five organizations from five different countries, including the Inclusive Art Friends Association – Dancing with the Difference.

Choreographed of Henry Amoedo, “Endless” is the outcome of this partnership, presented in two special performances, which will definitely leave no one indifferent.

FUNCHAL'S CULTURE FESTIVAL 2012

The Madeira Book Fair accomplishes in 2012 a new wide-ranging and diversified format. Now as Funchal's Culture Festival, beyond the traditional book fair, there are also additional cultural and touristic attractions extended to areas like cultural heritage, restoration, historical recreation and cartoons, all part of a multidisciplinary proposal.

Funchal's Culture Festival is held from May 17 to 27 and according to the organization's goals, it aims to show and highlight its citizens interests, to promote the role of the city's structures and the cultural richness that it embraces; the institutions that encourage, sponsor, support and promote the arts, the facilities where they come to "live" and develop, the museum's cultural heritage, as well as their natural and architectonic environment, where they are obviously set, and which defines the relationships of everyone's daily routines and work, articulating the arts and culture with the society's economic and social life.

This brand new concept intends to be a driving force behind the existent cultural and artistic activity, in order to enhance the performance and raise up the economic actions that are foreseen to be established in areas of the so-called leisure business activity. It's important to point out that all of the above should be done creatively whether if it's entertainment areas, restaurants, shops, museum facilities, theaters or other entities.
