“Les Misérables”

Les Misérables is one of the main novels from the 19th century written by the French author Victor Hugo, also author of the «Toilers of the Sea» and «The Hunchback of Notre Dame» among other works, which tells us about the political and social situation in France, during the period of the Democratic Insurrection, on June 5th 1832 (French Revolution of 1830), through the story of Jean Valjean.

In the court of Faverolles, France, Jean Valjean is sentenced to spend five years in prison for stealing bread. The penalty increases due to his repeated attempts to escape and ultimately this will make Jean Valjean spend 19 years in prison. After fulfilling his penalty, he is put on parole and has to report himself regularly, or otherwise he might be imprisoned for life. Valjean feels as an outcast every time he meets someone, because of the «yellow ticket-of-leave» he carries, which identifies him as a former prisoner. He is helped by Bishop Myriel (Bishop of Digne), but instead of showing his gratitude he steals the entire bishop's silverware and is arrested because the pieces had the bishop's coat of arms. When the soldiers take Valjean to the Bishop's presence, he claims that the silverware was a gift and that Valjean had forgotten to take the candlesticks. This proof of kindness makes Valjean believe in people once again. After a few years, Valjean becomes a wealthy businessman, is appointed mayor of his adopted town and a respected man for his kindness. He will even take care of Cosette...

Performed by MADS, Les Miserables goes on stage between the 17th and the 27th of April at the Baltazar Dias Municipal Theater.
