Madeira Music Festival

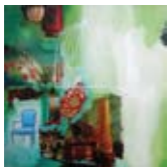

Throughout the month of June, the Regional Secretariat for Education and Culture and the Department of Cultural Affairs promote the 31st Edition of the Madeira Music Festival. An initiative focused on classical music, offering a wide range of events, such as: sacred music, chorale singing and contemporary dance performances, bringing, once again, to the Region high quality names within the Performative Arts.

Initially centred in the city of Funchal, the Music Festival extended itself, as from 2007, to several municipalities of the Region with the goal of promoting cultural decentralization.

Closing this year's edition of the festival, the Casa das Mudas Arts Centre, in Calheta, welcomes the Companhia Olga Roriz. Simultaneously, Funchal greets locals and visitors with a fireworks display, the Atlantic Festival. This internationally renowned fireworks competition is held on every Saturday of the month at Funchal's harbour.

other events

From June 5th to 7th, the City of Machico welcomes, once again its traditional 16th Century Market. Organized by the Escola Secundária de Machico and City Hall, the event has repeatedly gained both cultural and tourism projection abroad.

Under the theme “Journeys to North-Africa”, this year’s edition introduces many forms of entertainment, ranging from dance, theater, music and acrobats, in an attempt to live history by recreating different moments of the period. The highlight goes to the shipment of the Expedition to Safi (Morocco) and to the symbolic parade of its return trip.

Having as its primary goal raising the public awareness towards the need of preserving local cultural heritage, through historical performances, the 16th Century Market combines entertainment and heritage with strong educational elements addressed to all age groups.
