Atlantic Roots Festival

An annual initiative from the Department of Cultural Affairs, the Atlantic Roots Festival introduces to the Madeiran public and to those who visit us, a program of traditional music and dances, being the only major regional event in the world music area.

Beyond Madeiran and also performing in this 10th edition are national and international artists. From the 23rd to the 25th of July, the highlight goes to the musical and theatrical show "New World" by the Madeiran Norberto Cruz; Gaitúlia with a combination between our traditional music and the bagpipes from Trás-os-Montes (mainland Portugal); the performance by the Moroccan group Fatias de Cá - Oujda, and closing the event, Márcio de Camillo, one of the greatest exponents of the Brazilian guitar.

All concerts take place at the Municipal Garden Auditorium, in Funchal, with free admission as from 9.30 p.m.
