“EVA PERÓN”

Sixteen years over its world première at the Municipal Theatre Baltazar Dias, in Funchal, Eva Perón, returns to Madeira. Scheduled to re-première at Machico - Municipality of Culture 2011 at the end of October, this play marks the beginning of the 60th anniversary celebrations of the late and mythic Eva Perón. Beyond travelling throughout the island of Madeira, this play will be also touring in Spain, Germany, Brazil and Argentina, closing its tour in 2012, in the country where Eva Perón was born and died.

In Madeira are scheduled around two dozen performances, in different localities, such as: Machico, Ponta do Sol, Câmara de Lobos, Calheta and Funchal, an expected return to the theater that in 1995 hosted this play over a month.

With a scenario, holder of several international awards and conceived by the Madeiran plastic artists Eduardo Freitas and Manuel Rodriguez, the show also has a great costumes wardrobe, in which stand out some designs by the Madeiran stylist André Correia.
