Atlantic Roots Festival

Every year during the last week of July is held the Atlantic Roots Festival, offering a wide-ranging, multicultural and diverse programme.

The event combines traditional folk music and dances with World Music, introducing musical projects from around the world, with a particular focus in Europe.

From July 22nd to 24th locals and visitors may listen to traditional sounds from Venezuela, Russia, United States of America, Mali, England, Portugal and Madeira. The concerts are held at Funchal's Municipal Garden and have free admission.

World Islands and the Island's World

Between the 26th and the 30th of July the Study centre of Atlantic History (CEHA) welcomes, in Funchal, the international congress "World Islands and the Island's World" an initiative that brings to the Region international recognized experts in the field of insular studies. The congress gathers different researcher's contributions from multiple scientific areas, which make Madeira a preferable spot for their investigations.

Since 1985 that the CEHA has been focusing on this kind of events as a way of promoting relations between researchers from different island areas, assuming itself as a meeting point for information sharing, creation of new relationships and discovering of the Island's History and cultural habits.
