MADEIRA MUSIC FESTIVAL

During the first two weeks of June, music and dance will be in the limelight in Funchal and Calheta.

Opening the 32nd edition of Madeira Music Festival is the Quorum Ballet Dance Company at the Casa das Mudas Arts Centre, with the performance "Two Centuries", which, through dance, drama, poetry, music and plastic arts, pays a tribute to Manuel Teixeira Gomes, former President of the Portuguese Republic. On June 5th, the same dance company interprets a completely different register with the play "The Stone Girl" mainly addressed to a younger audience. Throughout the week are held daily concerts in Funchal, such as on June 6th at the Colégio Church, and the others at the Municipal Theatre Baltazar Dias.

On June 11th, the Pavão & Vitória Quintet pays a public homage to the Madeiran musician and composer Rafael Coelho Machado, a memory-journey through the musical evenings of the nobility and wealthy bourgeoisie, recalling the Madeiran Quintas of the 19th century.

The Madeira Music Festival of 2011 closes with an incursion through Celtic music, a surely memorable performance by the trio Jordi Savall, Andrew Lawrence-King and Frank McGuire.

“MACHIM, UM HERÓI FUNDADOR”

This month, Machico highlights the release of the book around the myth of Machim and Ana D'Arfet, by the author Marco Livramento, and on its contribution to a greater understanding about this issue, which has, for centuries, encouraged many investigations and surveys to ascertain the origins and veracity of the myth and its leading characters.

This edition is the first of three editorial projects that the Department of Cultural Affairs (DRAC), aims to undertake within the Machico 2011 Municipality of Culture mission. These three titles, are set within the historical experiencing, social and cultural development of city, and are part of the «Colecção Vária» of DRAC's Editorial Catalogue.

«Machim, um herói fundador», is a serious and consistent reference, with regard to the local historic and literary affluence, having contributed as well to the founding of the city of Machico.

The book release and public presentation is held on June 16th, 6p.m. at the Fort of Nossa Senhora do Amparo, in Machico.
