CONCERTOS

CONCERTS L: SUMMER SESSIONS 2014

Organized by the Ponta do Sol Inn, the "Concerts L" is the mellowest music festival of intimate music in the Region: a concert series that carries on through the month of October and where Portuguese music and other various international guest perform in harmony with the sounds of traditional or alternative music, rock, jazz, in order to produce an unique space with an "exquisite" cultural offer.

In August, the line-up is both excellent and original, allowing everyone to enjoy a unique atmosphere. Thus, opening this month, on the 6th, the band from Braga "Peixe: Avião", with a fusion progressive or "prog" electronic rock and rock and roll. "Dirty Beaches" goes on stage on August 13th with free jazz and new wave.

From the best Jazz school in the Portugal – The Hot Club, comes André Santos & John Hasselberg, on the 20th of August, accompanied by the talented regional trumpeter Rafael Andrade. One week later, another Portuguese band "Mão Morta", celebrating 30 years of career and after releasing their new album, this alternative rock band has its première in the "Concerts L" line-up programme, on August 27th.

In the following month of September, starting on the 13th, the Ponta do Sol's Inn welcomes Emika, one of the most respected Dubstep (a genre of electronic dance music) artists, performing the most electronic concert of this year's summer sessions programme, but with some classical elements.

On the 20th of September, an opportunity to listen to the singer-songwriter Mazgani, an Iranian living in Portugal, with his latest work "Common Ground".

Closing the month of September, on the 27th the lady-rapper from Oporto - "Capicua" with her brand-new work - "Sereia Louca" – for a debut concert in Madeira.

CYCLE OF BEETHOVEN SONATAS FOR CELLO AND PIANO

In 2004 and 2005, the Associação Amigos do Conservatório de Música da Madeira (AACMM) introduced the Complete Cycle of Piano Sonatas by Artur Pizarro, and in 2008 the Cycle of Violin and Piano Sonatas with João Pedro Cunha and António Rosado.

This year, through September and October, the AACMM, is proud to present at the Baltazar Dias Municipal Theatre, an ambitious project involving musical genres composed by one of the greatest composers of Western culture, the German composer Ludwig van Beethoven. The Cycle of Cello and Piano Sonatas includes, in addition to the five original works, transcriptions for trumpet Sonata, a string trio sonata and the renowned "Kreutzer" violin sonata.

As for the sonatas for piano and violin, Beethoven's cello sonatas are part of the core repertoire for each musical instrument, depicting not only the three main phases of his creative life, but also the development and affirmation process of a new musical genre, and simultaneously "opening a window" to his passionate and magnificent emotional world.

Luis Andrade, a Madeiran musician, currently living in the Netherlands and an active conductor, is the guest cellist. At the piano Robert Andres, a Croatian/Portuguese musician, teacher at Madeira Music Conservatory – School of Fine Arts and chairman of AACMM.

500th Anniversary Congress of Funchal's Diocese

The Diocese of Funchal was the first Portuguese diocese of the Catholic Church established outside of Europe, following the Portuguese discoveries that spawned the first globalization experience. Madeira would later on become a strategic platform for Iberian expansion to the "new world", as it was "seen" in the eyes of a Christian Europe, and of key importance to the process of Christian globalization. The diocese was founded in Funchal, in 1514, and would become an essential centre for the expansion and edification of overseas missionary churches.

Thus, from September 17th to 20th is held the International Congress "500 Years - Diocese of Funchal - The First Global Diocese: History, Culture and Spirituality". Definitely a cultural event of enormous scope that counts on the presence and contribution of numerous experts and researchers from the various areas of society, who will surely mark the passage of the Funchal's Diocese 5th Centenary Celebration. All of them will certainly introduce and contribute with new data and information for the development of its history and expecting a future to be based on the analysis of current challenges.
