BALLET IS THE HIGHLIGHT OF DECEMBER

In December and surrounded by a Christmas atmosphere of celebration and family spirit, we highlight the different events that will be held throughout the month and which every year recall our traditions in this season. An excellent way of getting into the spirit of Christmas is by attending and watching some of the classics associated to ballet and that bring to mind our childhood.

Ballet will be in the limelight at the Municipal Theatre Baltazar Dias and Madeira Casino Congress Centre Auditorium, with performances by the Carlos Fernandes Dance Company, the Russian Classical Ballet and with the première of the "The Russian Seasons in Madeira", a project by the company "Paladar à Música".

These three proposals will celebrate some of the most famous ballets such as: Sleeping Beauty, Giselle, Don Quixote, Swan Lake, Flames of Paris, Quebra-Nozes or Scheherazade.

CHRISTMAS IN FUNCHAL

music / dance

A large, reflective Christmas ornament is the central focus of the image. Inside the ornament, a choir of several people is captured in the middle of a performance. The women in the foreground are wearing light pink blazers over white dresses and are holding black songbooks. The men in the background are wearing dark suits and white shirts. The ornament's surface is highly reflective, showing distorted, colorful reflections of the scene inside. The background behind the ornament is a dark green, textured surface.

The Orfeão Madeirense organizes, once again, the Choir Festival with the ultimate goal of promoting choral music, emphasizing the work developed in the archipelago of Madeira.

The event is held from December 27th to 30th in two of the most emblematic venues part of our religious cultural heritage – the Cathedral – Sé, and the Colégio Church, both in Funchal.

This year's "Christmas in Funchal" welcomes a choir group from the city of Aveiro (mainland Portugal) and Estimma, the latest musical project within the Orfeão Madeirense, which will be publically introduced on the 29th and 30th of December, as well as other musical groups of the Region, from Funchal, Porto da Cruz, Arco da Calheta and Boaventura.
