MIAB – MADEIRA INTERNATIONAL ART BIENNIAL 2014

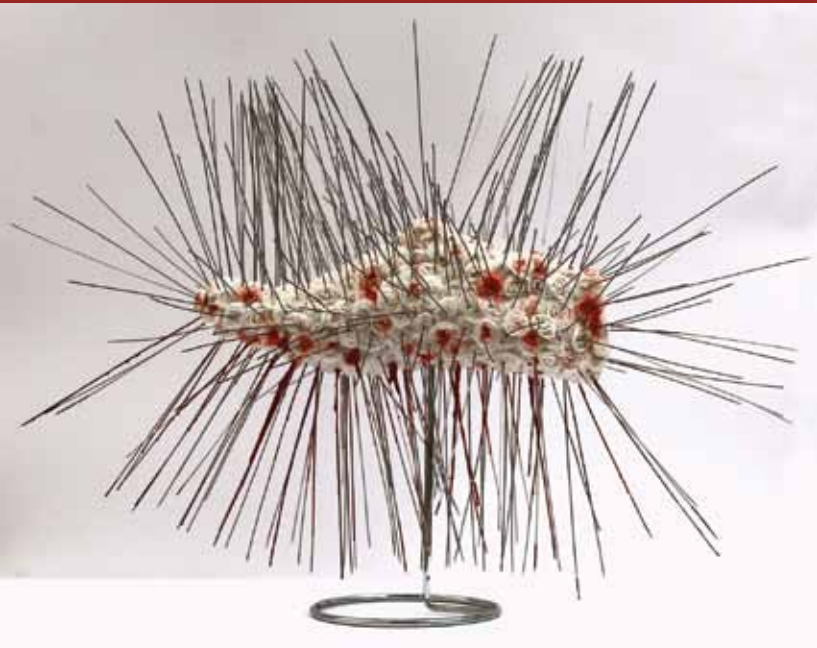

Three distinct venues welcome the 5th edition of this International Art Biennial: the International Cruise Ships Terminal - Funchal's Harbour, the Electricity Museum – "Casa da Luz", in Funchal, and the "Casa da Cultura", in Santana. This exhibition brings together 108 international artists from four continents, thus gathering painting, sculpture, printmaking, installation, photography and multimedia arts.

The MIAB is an international exhibition held in Madeira since 2005, which has continuously carried on a regular basis.

More than two hundred works take part in this 5th Edition of Madeira's International Art Biennial. The exhibition may be visited until the 1st of March.

MADEIRA CARNIVAL FESTIVITIES

Every year, the municipality of Santana marks with great enthusiasm, the beginning of the Carnival Festivities in the Region with its traditional "Compadres" Festival. An event with more than 50 years, where humour and social satire are the two main ingredients, known for its originality, with fun and giant characters who walk through the main local streets, in a parade full of colour and joy.

This year, the festivities take off on February 20th with the "Quinta das Comadres" and "Quinta dos Compadres", followed by the "Compadres Festival" and the ethnographic and fun parades. The celebrations' highlight is the public judgment of the "Compadres" and "Comadres", who are accused of infidelities and other sins and end up being publicly burnt in a traditional ritual. On the 27th of March and closing these festivities in the north part of the island, is held the "Revenge of the Compadres", driving all the attention now towards the city of Funchal, with its Carnival Celebrations from February 26 to March 5. This year the great allegoric parade, as always, brings to the streets of Funchal, on first Saturday of the month, hundreds of participants in various carnival troupes, locals and visitors. On February 4, Shrove Tuesday Day, it's time for the fun parade, also in downtown Funchal. An event that clearly highlights our popular roots, mixed with social satire, entertainment and lots of good mood.
